The City Government of San Juan has been awarded the Seal of Good Local Goverance by the Department of Interior and Local Government (DILG) in 2016 and 2017 respectively. This much coveted award has placed the City in high pedestal of performing local governments in the National Capital Region.

Due to the importance of the said award, the Local Government of San Juan finds it appropriate to create its own Seal of Good Local Government Award for the 21 barangays of the City, thus the granting of the Seal of Good Local Government (SGLG) Award to performing barangays that have excelled in their desire for effective and efficient public service is the City's manifestation of recognizing excellent public service of barangays in the City. This award will have three (3) barangay recipients: FIRST, SECOND AND THIRD PLACERS. This award shall replace the existing Search for the Best Barangay and awarding will be during the celebration of the Araw ng San Juan.

Considering their functions and roles, barangay governments are vital in the sustainable and inclusive economic development and social progress of San Juan City. Their competence and responsiveness in addressing the needs of the people shall form a great part in shaping San Juan City as one of the most competitive and most liveable cities in the country and in the world. With this, it is, therefore, necessary for the city government to ensure that elected officials in the 21 barangays of the city are highly proficient, effective and well-equipped in performing their duties, most especially in crafting relevant legislations and rational regulatory policies. The principle of transparency, accountability and people-participation should also be inculcated to them so as to improve delivery of basic social services, eliminate corruption, red tape and patronage politics, and ultimately, eradicate poverty and uplift the San Juanenos' quality of life.
